SHIPPING NOTES.

An exchange has the following: The well-known passenger ship, the branch clanion single-screw of the Hawaiian Islands, arrived in the city on the last st. amer. Branch was three years ago very popular as a local oarsman and went to Honolulu under contract to teach the subjects of his Majesty King Kalakaua the art of rowing. His contract having expired his presence in this city is accounted for. Branch met with great success on the islands. Things there, he says, are at present quiet in boating circles. He has received an order from the Cornell University to instruct the clubs connected with that college in the science of rowing and unless some inducements are offered to him to remain in this city he will accept the offer.
The steamers Likelike, Mokoli, Jas Makoe and Wailaleale will be due here to-morrow, the Kinua and Mikahala Sunday.

DIED.

COLBURN—In Honolulu, Sept. 27th,

Colburn, aged 1 month, of whooping cough.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

It gets hotter and hotter every day.
TRY ice cream soda at the Elite.

A CHILD died from whooping cough to-day.

A YOUNG German woman wants a situation.

A SOUTH breeze is blowing. It is a very light one.

A REPLY to H. G. N.'s letter came too late for this issue.

MR. A. J. IVERSON has gone on a visit to Naalehu plantation.

READ H. H. and C. E. Williams' notice about accounts unpaid.

A NUMBER of young natives practise fencing every day in the Palace grounds.

If the Mariposa got her mails on time she will be here early to-morrow morning.

THE volunteer boys of Engine Co.
No. 1 will have a meeting and drill this evening.

HIS Majesty the King has appointed Mr. J. W. Robertson Vice-Chamberlain.

LOOK in at Hewitt's window and see what ridiculously low figures his stock is marked at.

MR. CHAS. H. ELDRIDGE left on the W. G. Hall this morning for a two-weeks' stay at Olinda, Maui.

THE vacant lot at the corner of as usual.

IT IS RUMORED

That the storm will come next week; that the stockin', that ne'er is crookin', wi' washin' and walkin', is the snowblack stockin'; that there will be no more clements this week; that New Zealand mullet makes good fish chowder; that several changes will shortly be made in the Custom House; that the lepers on Molokai are loud in their praise of the new doctor; that there is nothing so easy to ride as a Government fed mule; that Bill Williams cannot build boats on notes; that it is hard for some men to speak the truth; that the ladies who have charge of the Blue Ribbon entertainment Saturday will admit gentlemen; that John F. Smith will be very welcome and no fun will be poked at him; that the police will soon raid the gamblers; that the Waikiki bridge will soon need replanking.

It has been discovered by the doctors that Cooked Taro Flour is excellent food for weak and delicate infants, prepared as follows: One tablespoonful of Cooked Taro Flour mixed with 1 pint of boiling milk. When cold feed the child with a nurse bottle. It will give a child new life in a few weeks.

TARO MUSH—Feed the sick and delicate persons on Cooked Taro Flour Mush, made thin and prepared like corn meal in boiling water, and served with milk and sugar. This makes an elegant mush.

TARO BISCUIT—Mix Taro Flour very thick in boiling water, then roll in wheat flour and form into bas-cuits, use a little butter at bottom of pan, smear a little butter over the top of Taro Biscuit, this makes a cheap and excellent Taro Cakes.

GRIDDLE CAKE—Take half eye dough, half Taro Flour, one or two eggs, little salt, one teaspoonful of Royal Baking Powder to a cupful of each, bake or fry on griddle.

TARO MUSH—Use 2 tablespoons ful of the Taro Flour to each person and mix thin, prepared like corn meal in boiling water, serve warm or cold with milk and sugar. Taro Mush can stand a day or two if desired.
